

CFL's Monthly Volunteer Recognition Program

Goal: To recognize members of the CFL volunteer community who are making an impact on CFL's mission.

Process: Person to be nominated by one of the following:

- Rosey Cox (volunteer coordinator)
- CFL paid staff member
- CFL event chairperson or committee member
- CFL Board Member or management committee member

The nomination must be sent in e-mail format to Rosey Cox, Volunteer Coordinator. Within the body of the e-mail, the nominator must write the person's full name, their involvement with CFL and reason for consideration.

Nominations will be reviewed by CFL staff, and a vote will occur on the last day of the month. Example, July's volunteer of the month will be voted on July 31st and the volunteer will be posted on CFL's website the next day.

Volunteers will receive CFL website recognition, an award and a CFL t-shirt.

Nomination guidelines:

- Nominated party must be an active volunteer of CFL
 - Board Members and Management committee members are included
- Party must have recently done something admirable within the CFL community
 - Ex. Raised a significant amount of money, hosted an external event, put a lot of volunteer hours into an event or office work, etc.
- Nominated party can be a group
 - Ex. Fraternity group, outside volunteer group, corporation
