July '11

Anthony Alfano was diagnosed with cancer in April 2010. Anthony traveled to a donated home in Hilton Head, NC in July with his parents and sister. He wrote, "Everything was well planned, details were communicated clearly and the travel expenses monies allowed us to enjoy a fun-filled week together. It was fantastic! Our family has been under such tremendous stress for the last 14 months. This was truly a blessing for all of us to spend quality time together."

August '11

Mary Ashley was diagnosed with stage 4 breast cancer. Mary traveled to the FPS home in Davenport, Florida in July with her husband and two children. She wrote, "This was a wonderful time together with family. My boys never mentioned the cancer, and for once in a long time were so happy!"

September '11

Kimberly Stevens was diagnosed with breast cancer in September 2010. She and her family traveled to Camp Kiev in Nobleboro, Maine. Kimberly said "Camp Kiev was great. There was so much to do for everyone but also if you wanted to relax you could do that to. We did pottery, arts, crafts, stained glass, archery, woodshop, canoeing, boating, swimming. It was awesome. When I got back I really felt refreshed and ready to battle!"

October 2011

Lisa Babb was diagnosed in November 2010 with breast cancer. She, her mom, and her son, William, traveled to the FPS home in Davenport, FL. Lisa said "I savored every moment and looked forward to each day. I can't wait to make more memories in the future."

November 2011

Sheila Crosby traveled with her mother on a CheapCaribbean.com sponsored respite. "It is so important for me to get away and experience peace of mind. This respite will help me gather my thoughts and get back on track mentally. It's been a physical and emotional struggle and this will help my spirit. A respite will help me heal."

December 2011

Karen DelVecchio was diagnosed with Waldenstrom's Lymphoma in 2010, and has on going treatment for life. She and her husband and two children went to the FPS home in Davenport, FL. "I truly believe God sends us angels daily and FPS is filled with those beautiful angels. My husband did not want to come back! He enjoyed seeing the smiles on the children's faces and financially it was a relief! Our children were able to see the gifts given to us from others in difficult times. It has taught them about compassion for others, which is a gift in itself!"

January 2012

Corrie Cristaldi was diagnosed with breast cancer. She and her husband and two children went to Davenport, FL. "My children will have these memories forever and at the end of each day they told her what their favorite part of the park was. My husband enjoyed the time we had together. My children are my motivation in life!"

February 2012

Eric Dial was diagnosed with liver and colon cancer in Oct 2010. He recently traveled to Davenport, FL with his wife and two children. His wife stated, "I have been running on battle mode for over a year. This gave me the opportunity to be a wife and mom, not a caregiver. I was finally able to let down my guard and breathe. The children realized that even though cancer brings unhappy memories, it can also create pretty awesome ones too."

March 2012

Sara was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2011. She was able to travel to Davenport, FL with her husband and two children. She wrote, "This was a dream come true! We couldn't have done it on our own and it was good to get away from it all and enjoy the warm sunshine. It does wonders for the soul!"

April 2012

Jean Marie Keenan-Johnston was diagnosed with breast cancer in April 2011. She traveled to Davenport, FL with her husband and two children. She wrote, "Thank you for this trip! My husband and I are very eager to volunteer for your organization as soon as my health and time allow. Once my treatment is over, I'll be in touch to see what we can do to help For Pete's Sake and reach out to others as you've reached out to our family."
